AT THE ORPHEUM

"The Unwritten Law" is to be presented tonight and tomorrow night at the Orpheum, with the final performance Thursday afternoon, when a special Thanksgiving matinee is to be given.

Thursday night "The Scout's Revenge" will be played for the first time. This is a melodrama of the plains, and while a thriller, is not outside the bounds of reason. It will be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, with a matinee Saturday afternoon. Monday night it will give way to "The Lost Paradise," one of the most beautiful dramas of the repertoire.

Dr. Ramus' Reply To Criticisms Of Quarantine Rules

U. S. QUARANTINE OFFICER ADDRESSES THE HAWAIIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION ON THEORY AND PRACTICE OF QUARANTINE HERE.
FEVER FROM CENTRAL AMERICA.

The subject of quarantines was handled at length in a paper read by Dr. C. Ramus, of the federal service here, in the annual meeting of the Hawaiian Medical Association, which came to an end with a banquet last night. Dr. Ramus took occasion to answer some of the many public criticisms that have been made during the past few years, and especially in recent months, of the rules of the service applied here, and he also gave a startling picture of the yellow fever peril against which Hawaii has to guard. The doctor's address was as follows:

The basic principles of quarantine administration are essentially the same in all maritime ports of the United States, and at present in nearly all other civilized countries. But their application in detail must differ necessarily in different ports, depending on such factors as climatic conditions, the character of the bulk of the shipping, where there is immigration, etc. Then there is to be taken into account the relative geographical locations of a given port to other ports; whether the same or different conditions prevail; the insect life, endemic diseases, sporadic diseases. A phase of quarantine procedure may be exceedingly common

MAUI STORY WAS A FAKE

November 26, 1907.
Editor Hawaiian Star, McCandless Building, Bethel Street, Honolulu.
Dear Sir:—In your paper of Monday, November 25, 1907, you published an article under the heading of "Carter Pinched." In this article appeared the following statement:

"On the fifteenth instant Z. Pail, a police officer, rounded up ex-Governor George R. Carter, A. F. Judd, W. Ken, S. G. Wilder, R. Ivers, George Chase, George Cushing, C. A. Hartwell and James Munro and requested that they produce their licenses or pay to him the required fee or accompany him. The gentlemen seemed to know just what was in store for them in case they did not accept his first or second offer and promptly paid five dollars each. They all are now possessors of licenses and may hunt until next July without being molested."

This statement would be very interesting if it were true, but there is not a grain of truth in it.

From November 12th to November 16th no one of the gentlemen mentioned was requested to produce his license or to pay a fee or to accompany any policeman. The reason for this was that previous to November 12th, on which date most of us reached the Island of Molokai, the matter had been arranged, and the $5.00 license fee for each of the above gentlemen had been paid to the county authorities.

Faithfully yours,

ALBERT F. JUDD,

[The article in question was from the Maui News and was published in The Star as a clipping from that paper, treating the matter rather as a joke on the Honolulu hunters than as a serious disregard of law. The Maui News appears to have been much misinformed.]

EDITOR STAR.]

FEDERAL COURT

ly compliment all of the court officers, especially District Attorney Breckon and Marshal Hendry. Of the latter, the report said, that at no time had he failed to have all witnesses asked for on hand promptly.

During this term the Grand Jury has returned a total of 49 indictments, and no "lost true bills." This is the largest number of indictments ever returned by a Federal Grand Jury in the Territory. Last year, ending June 30th, the indictments for the entire year were but 53.

In discharging the Grand Jury, Judge Dole took occasion to compliment its members heartily on the manner in which they had done their work the energy and conscientiousness which they had displayed, and the intelligence which they had evinced had been used in all findings.

The other indictments returned this morning follows:

Rose de Colta, two indictments, charge of bigamy, or more properly polygamy. This young woman, although but 22 years of age, is said to have three living husbands from she has never been divorced, and at the time the investigation was started against her to be living with a fourth man who whom she didn't take the trouble to marry. The three husbands are—a man named Mariello, Manuel Rosa, and Frank Miller. The man she is said to have been lately living with is William Larsen, Jr.

H. M. Ayres has also been indicted for sending obscene literature through the mail: viz. issues of the "Referee" a weekly publication which Ayres ran until recently. Some of the Referee's matter excited a great deal of hostility and the attention of the Post Office Department was finally called to one particular story, which resulted in his arrest, and now indictment.

Louis Florioff, one of the gang of boy junk thieves, mixed up in the Rosenberg fence operations, was also indicted.

SIX MONTHS.

Hyakichi a United States prisoner charged with illicit distilling, who had pleaded guilty, was this morning sentenced to six months imprisonment.

Involved in any strike, as such. Dealing with the engineers individually will be no different from dealing with them collectively if they hang together to win what they declare are only just demands for a fair wage under conditions where living is higher than elsewhere.

ONE VICTORY FOR THE PLAINTIFF

LOWRIE WINS IN A PRELIMINARY SKIRMISH IN HIS $400,000 DAMAGE SUIT.

Judge Robinson this morning rendered an important decision in the Lowrie vs. Baldwin et al $400,000 damage suit, by which he allowed the motion of the plaintiff to strike from the files the affidavit of D. L. Withington, attorney for the defendant, together with a purported copy of a deposition of William J. Lowrie, plaintiff, alleged to have been taken in a case pending in the Massachusetts courts.

The decision is in the light of a victory for the plaintiff and closes an important step in a noteworthy case.
The argument on the motion to strike above referred to, also included a motion to file an amended bill, by the plaintiff, bringing in other parties to the case, and has been going on for several weeks in heated battle between the attorneys. The second motion is yet to be decided, but may be in the course of the next week or two.

MATURITY

able to get at anything like an intelligent idea of what is available. The various pieces of real estate held in different parts of the Territory, will have to be appraised, and the collectibility of a number of mortgages learned. A number of suits will probably be brought to foreclose mortgages in a short time.

Treasurer A. J. Campbell who arrived home on Saturday from his trip East to float the recent Territorial loan stated this morning that his department had not been derelict in the matter of the Hawaiian Realty & Maturity Company, which has no doubt robbed hundreds of poor investors of various sums.

"My attention was first attracted to the concern when the semi-annual report was handed in December 30, 1905, when I saw that in order to make a balance Kentwell had juggled with his cash account. I began to look into the thing, and to do it had Smithies (Geo. E., deputy insurance commissioner in Treasurer's office) go over the books. His report dated May 1st, 1906, went to the Grand Jury, as well as the evidence I had in the sworn statements, but no action was taken.
Why, I don't know. In the fall of 1906 the Grand Jury took the matter up again, but nothing came of the investigation, although another expert, Cutting, was appointed and brought in a report of the badly mixed up concern."

Campbell, as treasurer, is by law given authority to examine into the condition of fiduciary and trust companies if he has reason to doubt their solvency or integrity, but the work of acting on his findings rests with the Attorney General's department. For some reason the grand jury failed to find any indictment at their investigation, though it is now said that the jury urged the Attorney General's department to take action, but for reasons not very fully explained, except on grounds of press of other business, the matter was permitted to be shelved.

A CUP OFFERED

A. P. Taylor, Chief of Detectives, has offered a silver cup to be played for by the winner of the Chinese A. C. picked team and the Police team. The game will be played at the League grounds before the big game Saturday afternoon. It is very probable that the Chinese A. C. will win the game on Thursday and the game with the Pearl Handies should be very interesting, as both teams are evenly matched.

At last night's inquest the crew of Car No. 14 which killed little Agnes Chalmers were exonerated of blame.

KILL TWO BIRDS.

You can kill two birds on Thursday by taking your wife to Haleiwa to enjoy yourself and get a good dinner at the same time. Let her be away from kitchen worries for a day and see how improved will be her disposition.
Manager Bldgood is making preparations to entertain a large number of guests on that day and you may as well be two of the number.

HART TESTIFIES

Lionel Hart was a witness in the United States court this morning in the case of Kim Yong Han, a Korean, charged with being mixed up in the counterfeiting gang from Hawaii. Hart, who most Honoluluans remember is serving a three years sentence for attempting to burn the government oil warehouse in order to cover up the shortage of oil due to his speculations, testified to having written a note at the dictation of the Korean prisoner to the effect that he was not guilty.
The case is being strongly contested by Attorney Larnach, who is representing the defendant.
